WSW EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS
FROM: AMY GIMLIN, WSW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
RE: POLICY UPDATES

WSW Employee Handbook

The first version of this handbook was put into place January 2020. Over the last year, there are a few items that need to be addressed as a result of our monitoring or because it doesn’t work in practice or circumstances have changed and it is time to update. A few of the specifics are:

- Added our diversity statement to the introduction.
- We need to revise the compensation practices on Page 30 to reflect how bonuses are determined.
- Final pay and benefits on Page 35, revised to reflect what our actual process is when an employee leaves WSW.
- Time off benefits on Page 37, revised to add the ability for CEO to make changes to paid holiday schedule with Executive Board approval.
- PTO buy out options on Page 38, revised to allow CEO to modify eligibility of PTO buy out should circumstances justify.
- As we learned from the impact of COVID on the work environment, there is a need to explore a hybrid model of in person/remote workspace.
- Review the leave policies and modernize with a possibility of Paid Parental Leave.
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Limited Re-Opening plan for Next Vancouver & WorkSource Vancouver + Kelso (Title 1)

The WorkSource Centers of Vancouver and Kelso, as well as Next Vancouver have been following health measures since the beginning of the COVID-19 Pandemic; however, it has been determined by WSW, WorkSource, and Next leadership that it is necessary for all centers to begin to provide in person services to customers that do not have access to the current virtual system in place. This plan will provide for limited 1 on 1 face to face appointments with Equus employees while ensuring the safety of both employees and customers.

Re-Opening Plan

This current plan only addresses those services offered by Equus Workforce Solutions (Equus) and Educational Service District 112 (ESD 112) employees. At this time, the staff from partnering agencies, including but not limited to, the Employment Security Department (ESD), Job Corps, Department of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) will not be providing in person services at either center. The WorkSource and Next leadership teams will continue to communicate and deliberate with those partners to ensure a safe and structured return to the centers for both employees and customers.

The COVID-19 Pandemic has changed the way we work. While both WorkSource and Next have successfully operated and served the community via telework and virtual service delivery, we also know there are many customers who do not have access to the necessary technology to ensure full access to services. This limited re-opening plan will help address those needs of the WorkSource customers in a safe and responsibly manner.
