Workforce Southwest Washington Announces New Board Members

VANCOUVER, Wash. (March 14, 2017) – Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) has added two new members to its volunteer board of directors.

Joining the board are Frank Hurtarte, Vice President of Human Resources with Kaiser Permanent Northwest, and Shannon Stull, Business Manager with the Laborers' International Union of North America (LiUNA335). In addition, Cowlitz County Commissioner Dennis Weber has joined the organization's Executive Board of County Commissioners.

The workforce board includes representatives of private businesses, education, organized labor, local governments, community-based and nonprofit organizations, state agencies and economic development councils.

Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) (formerly known as the Southwest Washington Workforce Development Council), a nonprofit organization founded in 2002, contributes to regional economic growth by providing investments and resources to improve the skills and education of the workforce in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. WSW-funded programs help businesses find and hire the employees they need and provide people the skills, education and training to find work or advance in their careers. WSW partners with employers, community colleges and universities, labor groups, government and economic development agencies, high schools and community organizations.
