Workforce Council Hosts Event for Nonprofits and Social Service Agencies to Help Connect their Clients to Free Job-Related Resources

Cowlitz County, Wash. (August 28, 2014) – Nonprofit organizations and social service agencies that have clients in need of employment-related services are invited to a free Workforce Connections Event on Tuesday, September 16 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Cowlitz PUD Auditorium (Public Utilities District), 961 12th Avenue, Longview.

Sponsored by the Southwest Washington Workforce Development Council (SWWDC), the goal of the event is to increase access to job-related resources for those most in need. Event attendees will learn about SWWDC, WorkSource and other partners that provide employment-related services and job training for adults and youth and find out how their clients can access the free services provided by these organizations.

RSVP by September 5 to Julia Maglione at jmaglione@swwdc.org or 360.567.3176.

Light refreshments will be served. Parking is limited and attendees are encouraged to carpool and park in the gravel lot on the corner of Commerce Avenue and Delaware Street.

The Southwest Washington Workforce Development Council (SWWDC), a nonprofit organization founded in 2002, is the Workforce Investment Board (WIB) for Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. SWWDC brings together funding, state agencies, local service providers, colleges, economic development and community organizations to provide employment and training services to businesses, job seekers and youth.
