Workforce Plan Available for 30-Day Public Comment

VANCOUVER, Wash. (May 2, 2018) – Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) has updated its Strategic Workforce Plan for 2016-2020.

The four-year plan covers workforce development in the community. WSW is seeking feedback on the plan prior to finalizing it in June.

The plan is available for review at www.workforcesw.org for 30 days beginning May 2. Businesses, labor organizations, institutions of higher education, partner organizations and the public are encouraged to provide input.

Written comments can be emailed to info@workforcesw.org by 5 p.m. Pacific Time on June 1.

Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW), a nonprofit organization founded in 2002, contributes to regional economic growth by providing investments and resources to improve the skills and education of the workforce in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. WSW-funded programs operated by WorkSource and community-based organizations help businesses find and hire the employees they need and provide people with the skills, education and training to find work or advance in their careers. WSW collaborates with employers, community colleges and universities, labor groups, government and economic development agencies, high schools, nonprofits and community organizations.
