WorkSource hosting May 24 event to help Camas Mill workers with their job search

Vancouver, Wash. (May 17, 2018) — To help Georgia-Pacific's Camas Mill workers that are facing layoffs plan for their job search, WorkSource will host an information session on Thursday, May 24 from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at WorkSource, 204 SE Stonemill Drive, Suite 215, Vancouver 98684.

The WorkSource manufacturing sector team will be on-hand to help mill workers with services and information, including unemployment insurance, retraining, Trade Act (TAA), starting a business, resume writing, interviewing tips, skills assessments, connections to other services and more.

WorkSource is in contact with more than 27 local employers that are eager to interview and hire the mill workers who are losing their jobs.

Among the positions for which they are hiring are: process engineers, instrumentation technicians, training managers, millwrights, pipefitters, maintenance planners, production operators, electricians, engineers, quality control inspectors, inventory control and more.

For more information about the event, contact John LeMarte at jlemarte@esd.w.gov or 360-735-5060.

Job seekers can create an account and profile on www.WorkSourceWA.com to post their resume or create one, and gain exposure to employers that have job openings. Information on training and workshops is also available on the site.
