Workforce Southwest Washington Announces New Board Members

VANCOUVER, Wash. (July 18, 2018) – Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) has added three new members to its volunteer board of directors.

Joining the board are:

- Mara Kieval, Nurse Representative with the Washington State Nurses Association. She will represent Clark County labor.
- Max Ault, Interim President of the Columbia River Economic Development Council, representing Clark County economic development.
- Robert Jungers, Owner of Elochoman Millwork, representing Wahkiakum County private sector.

Earlier this year, Clark County Councilor Eileen Quiring joined the organization's Executive Board of County Commissioners.

The workforce board includes representatives of private businesses, education, organized labor, local governments, community-based and nonprofit organizations, state agencies and economic development councils.
