Workforce Southwest Washington Announces New Board Officers

VANCOUVER, Wash. (July 19, 2018) – Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) has appointed new Board Officers for its volunteer board of directors.

Bill Skidmore, Sr. Account Executive with General Sheet Metal, is Board Chair. Paige Spratt, an attorney with Schwabe, Williamson & Wyatt, is Vice Chair. Jim Lucey, Controller at Analog Devices, retains his role as Treasurer.

The workforce board includes representatives of private businesses, education, organized labor, local governments, community-based and nonprofit organizations, state agencies and economic development councils.

Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW), a nonprofit organization founded in 2002, contributes to regional economic growth by providing investments and resources to improve the skills and education of the workforce in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. WSW-funded programs help businesses find and hire the employees they need and provide people the skills, education and training to find work or advance in their careers. WSW partners with employers, community colleges and universities, labor groups, government and economic development agencies, high schools and community organizations.
