Workforce Southwest Washington Seeks Proposals to run Workforce Adult/Dislocated Worker/Business Programs and to Operate WorkSource One-Stop Centers

Vancouver, Wash. (Nov. 28, 2018) – Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW) is seeking proposals for two projects: (1) Adult and Dislocated Worker & Business Solutions – to manage the funds and services utilizing the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act \(WIOA\) regulations, specifically Title I Adult Dislocated Worker programs to help people get and keep jobs, and assist businesses to find the talent they need to succeed and grow, and (2) WorkSource Operator – to act as the Operator of the WorkSource comprehensive one-stop, affiliate and connection sites in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties.

Prospective bidders must submit questions by December 21, 2018 to info@workforcesw.org. All questions will be answered at a bidders' conference on January 7, 2019.

The Requests for Proposals (RFPs) for both projects are available at www.workforcesw.org in “News & Events” or by clicking the RFP button at the bottom right of the homepage.

Proposals must be submitted by 5 p.m. Pacific Time on March 4, 2019. Late proposals will not be accepted.

Workforce Southwest Washington (WSW), a nonprofit organization founded in 2002, contributes to regional economic growth by providing investments and resources to improve the skills and education of the workforce in Clark, Cowlitz and Wahkiakum counties. WSW-funded programs help businesses find and hire the employees they need and provide people the skills, education and training to find work or advance in their careers. WSW partners with employers, community colleges and universities, labor groups, government and economic development agencies, high schools and community organizations.
