

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE MEMO #30

DATE: APRIL 24, 2020 REVISION DATE: DECEMBER 2, 2021
TO: DISLOCATED WORKER PROVIDERS
FROM: AMY GIMLIN, WSW CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER
RE: DISLOCATED WORKER ELIGIBILITY DURING COVID-19

Temporary revision to definition of Unlikely to Return to Previous Occupation

Previous Definition:

Refers to the status of an unemployed worker as having limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides as confirmed by labor market information and/or labor analysis by the Employment Security Department or recent local labor market events.

Temporary Definition:

Refers to the status of an unemployed worker as having limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides as confirmed by labor market information and/or labor analysis by the Employment Security Department or recent local labor market events.

From now until March 31, 2022, an individual who has a return to work date that is 8 weeks or less from the point of application for the WIOA program is considered likely to return to their previous industry or occupation except when a physical or mental limitation prevents them from returning to work in their previous industry or occupation.